SUB: 16 days of activism 2023 "Stop the Violence. Period."

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from the Bharat Scouts and Guides, National Headquarters!

The 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence is an annual international campaign that kicks off on 25th November, the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women, and runs until 10 December, Human Rights Day. The global theme for this year's 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence is

"Stop the Violence. Period."

It's time when world is raising voice and united to call for an end to all forms of violence against girls and women. By participating in this programme, you will be joining other Guides and Rangers globally to say that they are not to be blamed for the violence they experience and we stand with them.

Each year, WAGGGS and the Stop the Violence campaign invites the Movement to join an awareness-raising campaign on a certain thematic area. This year we are building on our work and programmes to #StopTheViolencePeriod.

What is Stop the Violence. Period?

Whilst a biological and natural, cleansing part of life for girls, the start of menstruation can also mark the beginning and increased risk to violence, with menstruation being the trigger, factor and/ or cause many stereotypes and myths exist around menstruation, and they can keep harmful beliefs alive, which can lead to ongoing stigma and violence.

Period violence is experienced in many forms and can be understood to include poverty, Bullying, stigmatisation, period exile, verbal, physical and/or sexual abuse and child marriage, all triggered and connected to the start of and ongoing menstruation. There is #NoExcuse as to why this exists, nor why it should continue, and we come together to take action in advocacy, education and exploring better period health together. We know that globally, menstruation is a term and experience met with many mixed emotions, confusion, fear and shame, followed by the increased risk of violence, , which can be both self-guided or the result of society, community and perpetrator behaviours.

We will shine a light on this experience and know we can be part of change and use our voices to stop period violence.

We encourage, support and are committed to including all girls, within and beyond the Movement, to dismantle the myths and smash some of the stigmas.

How can YOU take and inspire action?

Join us in one of the three ways below and get involved in our 16 Days of Activism campaign, #StopTheViolencePeriod

1) Get social! Be a part of the conversation. Together we will:

- Slay period myths and share our collective local, national and global untruths so that girls worldwide know the difference between fact and fiction.
- Learn about all the forms of period violence and why it matters.
- Reduce stigma by shining a spotlight on code words, the harms of

2) Get Connected: Activities, Conversations and Ideas

- Visit the 16 Days of Activism website and find a list of the activities, and actions you can take. Suitable for ages 13+

3) Get Vocal: Take Part in our Roaring Red Survey

- Centred in what it's like for girls and young women today, we will be asking our Girl Guides and about what it's like to be a girl and woman today; share your experience of menstruation and the impact of your environment, peers and society. Girl Guides and Girl Scouts will take your voices and responses. They will further share these with world leaders at the United Nations' sixty-eighth session of the Commission on the Status of Women in 2024.

Girl Scouts about their menstruation experiences and the impact of their environment, peers and society.

Send updated report with Photos at pro@bsgindia.org and waggs@bsgindia.org on or before 10th December 2023.
